

Cup - id the land - lord keeps ev - 'ry - thing neat, And the place is called love - birds in ca - ges on ev - er - y floor, And the sweet - est of fol - lows its ten - ants wher - ev - er they go, And it lives in the pal - ace of gold, if they still love so well For the old place they cresc.

Hon - ey - moon Hall. Now I hear an a - part - ment is love - songs they sing. O with true lov - ers knots all the heart ev - er green. Though mis - for - tune may come if your nev - er need grieve. Ah, this Hon - ey - moon Hall you have va - cant to - day, On the sun - ny side O, such a view! So cur - tains are tied, And fresh kiss - es are served, morn and night. And heart is still true, You will find that no harm can be - fall For wher - guessed, dear, I know, Is - nt just in one spot not at all; But wher -